INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND VICINITY.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in His Town as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hughes have left for the city.

Professor Kemp was sightseeing in the Bay City Sunday.

J. Serres and wife motored to Cloverdale on Friday of last week.

Ken Weaver, well-known contractor and builder, was here from Kenwood Sunday.

J. Algren and Tony LaSalle transacted business at the county seat the latter part of the week.

L. Tracy, a crack machinist of the Union Iron Works, San Francisco, was visiting his brother here Sunday.

Miss M. Lyons, after spending several weeks visiting at the Murray residence, returned to her San Francisco home Sunday.

Charley Cowan, formerly a popular society chap of this place, was up from the city Sunday shaking hands with his lady friends.

A large crowd of baseball fans and fanciers attended the benefit game at Boyes Sunday and report a number of good plays on both sides.

Mr. and Mrs. Erhard Steiger of Schellville, accompanied by Mrs. Steiger's sister of San Francisco, were visiting here last Saturday.

Frank Weaver and son Byron were passengers for San Jose the latter part of last week Mr. Weaver is a well-known Prohibitionist of this place.

A. Martinoni. well-known liquor drummer, was soliciting here the latter part of last week. George Weaver showed the gentleman through the valley.

Mrs. F. Zemon, who has been residing with her son, D. Zemon, the past year, has returned to San Francisco with her daughter to make her future home there.

Washington's birthday was observed in this town and all our flag poles had Old Glory hoisted. The flag over our public school house was the most noticeable.

One day last week as Tom Richards was hauling a load of wood from his father's ranch in the eastern foothills he was thrown from the wagon and suffered a sprained wrist.

Among the Sonomaites who went to Santa Rosa Monday morning were attorneys Poppe and Cowgill, Mrs. Topete, Frank De Martini and George Wallman and daughter.

Thomas Brown, aspirant for the appointment of postmaster at Sonoma under the Democratic administration was a passenger for Santa Rosa on Monday morning's S. P. train.

Maurice O'Dowd and son of the metropolis were here Saturday and Sunday planting out a number of fruit trees on their ranch west of town. Mr. O'Dowd is a well-known police officer.

Willie Meehan is here training for his four-round bout with Sailor Petroskey in the city Friday evening. Rawhide Kelley is training the coming middle-weight champion and if he wins his next two fights manager L. Parente will take him East to try him out with the crack stars there.

Mrs. O. Wilkinson visited in Santa Rosa the latter part of last week.

Miss Emma Lindauer of San Francisco was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chance several days the fore part of the week.

Aug Marcy and Jep Valente, two of Sonoma's rising young and good-looking society chaps, were in town Sunday in a classy rubber tire rig. These boys are certainly some speed and when it comes to ladies' men they are not to be excelled.

Larry Larsen is soon to start a dancing school here. Professor Larsen is an up-to-date teacher and will make a speciality of the "Turkey Trot," "Gopher Snake Glide" and the "Donkey Ding". He will also have a separate class, which will be strictly society. Alexander's Ragtime band of San Francisco is to furnish the dance music.

Louis Parente, Willie Meehan, Chas. Miller and Frank Carter, well-known sporting men, attended the Wolgast-Murphy contest at Daly City last Saturday. The boys claim the fighting harp a good one and they say he has got the skidoo sign on Wolgast. Of course it takes the Irish to make the Dutch show the white feather. Ad must realize this now as his last two fights have been with Irishmen and he certainly got some beating.

Robt. Poppe, Frank Sprague and Granville Harris of Sonoma attended the ball game at Boyes Springs Sunday. Lawyer Poppe was accompained by his corn cob pipe and sack of tobacco and seemed to be enjoying a smoke as well as the game. Attorney Sprague was noticeable on the grounds with his new pair of knee boots and English cap, while Granville Harris enjoyed a Manilla cigar as the game proceeded. There is some class to these old time ball fans.

Howard Gregory, crack pitcher for the Oaks and who was one of twirlers who helped them win the pennant last year, and who owns a chicken ranch here, has left for Oakland to confer with manager Mitse of the Star team the first of the week. Gregory has not signed his contract and is holding out for more coin. He is considered one of the best curve artists now before the public and has many friends here who will watch his playing with great interest this season.

Frank Semmel is visiting in the Bay City.

Mrs. Chas. Spindler spent the fore of the week in the Exposition City.

A large crowd from here attended the Citrus Fair at Cloverdale last week.

Louis Bernzaft transacted business in the metropolis the latter part of last week.

Albert Dutil and sister, Miss Alice Dutil, were guests at the French Cottage recently.

Harry Rosemond, stage hand of the Orpheum theatre, San Francisco, was in town the fore part of the week.

Miss Cecelia Dowdall and Miss Mabel Farrell of the metropolis were visiting at the N. Dowdall residence over Washington's Birthday.

Eugene Dutil was here from the city Sunday. Everybody was admiring Gene's new derby hat and we wonder if that was the last one made in Frisco.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan captured an escape from the State Home at Eldridge last Friday morning south of this place. The fugitive was headed for Sacramento.

Mr. Cantor, the well-known proprietor of Cantor's Villa, has just completed a fine gate in front of his beautiful new summer resort, which is noticeable to all passers by.

Word has been received here that Thomas Erskine, British Consul at St. Louis, Mo., has been designated by his government to be British Consul for Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Alaska, to succeed the late James Laidlow. Mr. Erskine is well known throughout the Sonoma Valley, having resided here many years, and his many friends are glad to see him get this appointment. He formerly owned the Taylor residence near Verano.

The grand ball given by the El Verano Development Association last Saturday evening at the Bellevue Hotel was a grand success. A large crowd of party going people from all over the valley assembled in the beautifully decorated hall to enjoy an evening of dancing. Emmet Mullen and W. J. Kearney had charge of the floor and the Pauli-Johnson orchestra of Sonoma furnished the latest dancing music. All enjoyed themselves and are looking forward to the next grand ball of the association.

The train en route to Santa Rosa Monday morning was an hour late but the delayed passengers were supplied with plenty of excitement. A well-known Sonoma attorney and a wine merchant of that place were about to engage in a fist fight, the argument being brought about by a law case to be settled in Santa Rosa. The attorney in the mix-up immediately took off his coat and glasses and was ready for action, but a well-known Sonoma game commissioner intefered and stopped the battle just as the gong sounded. At this, a number of lookers-on got mixed up in a wordy argument and it looked like the jaw fest would end in a free-for-all battle. Hot shots were passed between two other well-known Sonomaites, but it ended in hot air. Archie McKiver was attracted to the scene and was ready to do the come-back stunt if anything was started. Nobody was hurt and all boarded the train for Santa Rosa without the aid of an ambulance.

SONOMA COUNTY AND ITS INDUSTRIES

Ranks First in Eggs and Poultry Production Out of Fifty-eight Counties of California

Sonoma county, long famous as a fruit production section, has added to its laurels by taking the lead among the fifty-eight counties of California in annual number of poultry owned, in annual egg production, and in value of poultry and eggs produced, according to figures that have been compiled by Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan, for publication in the State Blue Book. At the same time, the county has mantained its fame as a fruit section, ranking second in the number of bearing apple trees, and plum and prune trees; third in number of bearing orchard fruit trees, third in smaller fruit products, and fourth in grape product. In an agricultural way the county has made a good showing also, being credited with an increase in farm property values in ten years of 64.4 per cent.

All crops are given a value of $4,451,378, a figure exceeded by but nine counties of the state. The hay and forage crop was valued at $1,170,906, the fruit and nut crop at $2,034,805, the vegetable crop $185,759, all other crops $1,008,116.

The acreage in cereals was 2566, while 62,351 acres were planted to hay and forage; 5,265 acres to alfalfa; 47,021 acres in grain cut green for hay, and 2,279 in potatoes. The total cereal product was 747,827 bushels; the hay and forage product 87,949 tons, the alfalfa product 10,461 tons; the potato product 161,597 bushels.

BIGELOW AND GATES AT LOGGERHEADS

They no Longer Do the "Damon and Pythias" Act—The Former Sues the Latter to Recover $580.49

J. K. Bigelow and E. O. Gates, Sonoma Valley's brace of hypocritical reformers, no longer speak as they pass by. On the contrary, Bigelow is now suing his erstwhile friend and fellow crusader, in his efforts to improve the morals of Sonoma Valley, to recover the sum of $580.49. It all came about this way: Shortly after the Local Option contest in this Supervisorial district in which Bigelow was badly worsted, Gates, according to his own statement, made repeated demands on Bigelow for a sum of money which he alleged he had loaned Bigelow to bet on the election and also for services performed in securing the necessary signatures to the local option petition. Gates claimed Bigelow had doublecrossed him and talked loudly of bringing suit against the very person before whom he had fawned, kow-towed and worshipped all through the wet and dry campaign.

Bigelow denied that he owed Gates anything, claiming on the contrary that Gates was indebted to him. To make good this denial on Tuesday Bigelow commenced suit in the Superior Court against Gates to recover the sum mentioned above for goods, merchandise and wares supplied him.

It may be assumed that Gates will now file a counter suit against the truly good and great Mr. Bigelow, and should he take the witness stand and swear to the things he has been saying about Bigelow's shady business methods it will sure make entertaining reading.

C. C. Cowgill of this city is the attorney for Bigelow.

The Kansas Blue Sky Law
A Vicious and Unjust Measure.

The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce has begun a campaign of education to inform every voter in the State of the disasters likely to follow the enactment in this State of a Blue Sky law of the typ now in force in Kansas.

No objection is offered to such measures as proposed in the Lyon bill, which is a Blue Sky law of the "publicity" type, giving the investing public complete protection from fraud by means of full information on all securities offered for sale.

The Gates bill, and similar measures proposing to create a dicator of industry with full power to crush any business concern he may dislike, is opposed as vicious in principle and in practice fraught with the gravest menace to the industries of the whole State.

One point that is attracting considerable attention and will be urged upon the people is the danger to the 1915 Exposition from the operation of such a measure as the Kansas Blue Sky law. If all stocks with uncertain prospects of paying profits are to be barred from the market it will be illegal to sell stock in the Exposition, or in any concession at the Exposition. The merchants are pointing out that the terms of the Kansas law would, in fact, expressly bar the whole Exposition project. Another strong argument which is being urged as important not only to the merchants directly, but to the people of the whole state, is the big leverage given by the Kansas Blue Sky law to the "money trust."

This argument has been given especial force by the testimony given to the country by the press reports of the Pujo Committee in Congress. Statistics are quoted to show that in the two years of the operation of the law in Kansas some 1800 investment companies have been driven from the State, while the banks have increased their deposits from about $19,000,000 to about $91,000,000.

The menace to the people at large from such a congestion of funds in the banks is in the fact that general business and all property values have been injured by the withdrawal of money from circulation. Every man who owns his home or his farm is affected; every man who is working for wages or on salary is threatened by the danger of industrial paralysis that has always followed over-filled bank vaults.

In this connection the shortsighted policy of the banks in Kansas is emphasized. While they are credited with financing the campaign which resulted in the passage of the law, and while the law has fulfilled their expectations in driving their competitors, the investment companies, out of business, it is now proved that the banks suffer in the general stagnation of property values in that State. Even if it were a wholesome thing for the banks to have a monopoly of ths investment business, it is shown that the banks eventually lose in the depreciation of their security for mortgage loans.

This is taking no account of the fact that investors were receiving larger returns on their money from legitimate investment companies. That is no small factor in the situation for smaller investors. The widow with a bare subsistence from an investment paying six per cent feels keenly a restriction to bank deposits paying four. Moreover, where her entire reserve is deposited in the bank, she is without security for her living in case of the banks suspension, whereas first-class stocks would give a lien on the property of the company issuing them.

"Gates Ajar."

G. J. K. Bigelow and E. O. Gates are at outs, and the former in his local newspaper tells his readers that when the latter removed from El Verano to Sonoma a few weeks ago he did not even say good bye to him, hence his suit recover from his erstwhile friend and fellow reformer the sum of $580.48, evidently for blighted affections. The story, from a Bigelowesque standpoint, is a most pathetic one and would make a crocodile weep. We would now like to see in public print what Gates has been saying about Bigelow of late. It sure would make racy reading.

Russell Salomonson Has Hand Operated Upon

Russell Salomonson, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Salomonson, was taken to San Francisco last Thursday by Dr. Frances Leix, where his left hand was operated upon in Dr. Morton's Hospital. In order to save the lad's arm, if not his life, the entire hand was removed with the exception of the thumb and forefinger.

The hand, which had been injured by a baseball, began to trouble the lad some months ago, and after being treated a short time by Dr. Leix his parents decided to consult with a specialist in San Francisco, where after being treated for three months by leading physicians without relief, he was brought back to Sonoma and again put under the care of Dr. Leix, when the operation of Thursday was determined upon. At latest accounts the lad was getting along nicely.

SONOMA VALLEY NEWS ITEMS.

As Reported by That Live Wire, Archibald McKiver, Who is Always Right There With the Goods.

E. O. Gates and son of Sonoma transacted business at the county seat the latter part of last week.

Walter Poulson and wife and John Vincent and family motored to Cloverdale last Sunday.

Joe Dowdall has returned from Dillon's Beach after spending several weeks at that popular seaside resort.

Geo. Supf, bar manager of the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, was visiting, his large ranch above town the fore part of the week.

T. H. Baines and Louis Peterson, two well-known business men of this place, transacted business in the metropolis Tuesday.

Mrs. Kitty Bannister of San Francisco came up from that city last Saturday evening and attended the grand ball at the Bellevue Hotel.

Sam Lewis, Milton McGimsey and Al Benham of Sonoma passed through here Monday en route to Santa Rosa. Chauffeur Gottenberg of Sonoma was at the wheel.

George McNab of Sonoma passed through here Sunday morning en route to Santa Rosa, where he umpired the opening baseball game of the season at that place.

Chas. Spindler left last Monday for an extended trip of several weeks to the Eastern states. Mr. Spindler will be more at home when this trip is finished and will devote his time to local affairs when he returns.

Poundmaster C. F. Carmer seems to be doing a rushing business by the looks of the number of cattle in his corral. Mr. Carmer is right there when it comes to gathering in live stock and how he does it nobody knows.

Ranald McDopell was in town last Saturday. He was riding a beautiful black horse and looked like the Duke of Wellington. He made a complete circle of the town and after unloading himself of a bunch of hot air went on his way to Sonoma.

We notice where one of the Santa Rosa lawyers who defended the Prohitionists of this place in the fight against the wets has taken a case of defending a saloon man for selling liquor without a license. There are certainly some strange things happening in Sonoma county.

The El Verano Development Association is in a prosperous way. A number of new members are being taken in at each meeting and it has been organized to stay. This organization will better the condition of El Verano and vicinity and has already made many needed improvements in and about this town.

Geo. Block and Geo. Weaver, well armed with shot guns, dogs and lariats went in search of the supposed wild man of Mt. Pisgah last Saturday. The boys got to the cave but did not enter. When they returned home they were exhausted, and we were unable to find out whether they had seen the queer fellow or not, but by the looks of them they must have seen something.

Willie Block, Vineburg's ladies man, was in town last Sunday. Such a difference since he has shaved his moustache. Even Belle Brandon was admiring him. You will be alright with the summer girls now, Bill, and whenever you kiss a summer fairy just think of Archie McKiver and the fatherly advice given to you a few weeks ago in the Index-Tribune. Hence Bill took the hint and "Moose" Robin, the Sonoma barber, did the rest. You certainly did a clean job, Paul.

On Friday afternoon the jury in the damage suit brought by Henry Weyl against Adam Adler to recover the sum of $10,000 for the loss of a thumb came into court with a verdict of $500 for plaintiff.

There will be no appeal in the case and the verdict will stand.

This suit was the outcome of Weyl getting his right hand caught in the machinery while boring an artesian well for Adler, one day last year. The hand was badly crushed and necessitated the amputation of the thumb. The plaintiff claimed the accident was due to a defect in the machinery.

Mrs. C. Poppe, who has been confined to her home for the last te days with blood poisoning in on of her feet, is gradually getting better and is able to be about the store again.

Glen Ellen was a busy town last S turday night. A large crowd of visitors came from all parts of the county to witness the basket ball game. Kenwood and Bennett Valley were well represented.

Make a hit. You will if you have your next suit made by our local tailor, A. Cheffers. He makes the live wire kind of decoration—full of snap, dash and go. They fit like feathers on a duck.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack London returned home last Friday night from San Joaquin Valley. Jack visited all the principal stock and hog ranches and he made some valuable purchases of thoroughbreds.

H. Trusty made a flying trip to the metropolis last Saturday to sign up A. Kustie, the big Indian, who played third base for the Turkey Reds last season. Kustie will be a big feature on the local team this season.

Hazen Cowan arrived home last Wednesday evening after a month's visit in Los Angeles where he was a participant in the rough riding contests during the big Rodeo week. He was very successful and is being congratulated by his friends.

Miss V. Monahan, Mrs P. Bradley, Mrs. P. Monahan and Mrs. G. Farrington were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cheffers last Thursday evening to a delightful social and party. All enjoyed a nice time, returning to their homes at 12 p. m.

Capt. W. J. Smith, who conducts the Fairmont Summer Resort, was in town on business last Monday. This is a new resort built last Summer. Mr. Smith now has a new hotel, fifteen cottages, numerous tents, dance pavilion, etc. This is a big boost for Glen Ellen.

A large crowd from all parts of the county was on hand last Saturday night to witness the basket ball game between the All Vallejos and the Glen Ellen team. The game all in all ended in a very unsatisfactory manner. With the record of wins of the local team the All Vallejos were a little bit afraid of meeting with defeat and in order to offset this they brought along their own referee and that was the cause of all the trouble. From the start it was plain to be seen there was no chance of the All Vallejos loosing as they enjoyed the best of the decisions At the end of the first half the score stood 4-4 The local captain and the manager held a session with the All Vall jo's, demanding a change of referees, which was flatly refused. After much argument the referee declared he would give the local team a better deal in the last half. But after a few minutes of playing he went back to the same old game. The captain of the local team at once called the game off and the referee awarded the game to the All Vallejo's. By a popular vote of the spectators Glen Ellen was awarded the game. The All Vallejos showed poor sportsmenship when they refused a change of referees after the first half when they could have chosen their referee.

HAPPY.

An Experience at Hull House.

Even death itself sometimes fails to bring the dignity and serenity which one would fain associate with old age. I recall the dying hour of one old Scotchwoman whose long struggle to "keep respectable" had so embittered her that her last words were gibes for those who were trying to minister to her. "So you came in yourself this morning, did you? You only sent things yesterday. I guess you knew when the doctor was coming. Don't try to warm my feet with anything but that old jacket that I've got there; it belonged to my boy who was drowned at sea nigh thirty years ago, but it's warmer yet with human feelings than any of your confounded charity hot water bottles." Suddenly the harsh gasping voice was stilled in death, and I awaited the doctor's coming, shaken and horrified.—Jane Addams in American Magazine.

Empty Titles.

William Jennings Bryan once joked about our American fondness for titles.

"You all know of the colonel," he said, "who got his title by inheritance, having married Colonel Brown's widow? But I once met a general who got his title neither by inheritance, nor by service, nor by anything you could mention.

"'General,' I said to him, 'how do you come by this title of yours, anyway?'

"'Why, sir,' said he, 'I passed my youth in the flour trade and for twenty-seven years was a general miller.'

"I know another titled man, Judge Greene.

"'Are you, sir,' I once asked him, 'a

to follow the enactment in this State of a Blue Sky law of the typ now in force in Kansas.

No objection is offered to such measures as proposed in the Lyon bill, which is a Blue Sky law of the "publicity" type, giving the investing public complete protection from fraud by means of full information on all securities offered for sale.

The Gates bill, and similar measures proposing to create a dicator of industry with full power to crush any business concern he may dislike, is opposed as vicious in principle and in practice fraught with the gravest menace to the industries of the whole State.

One point that is attracting considerable attention and will be urged upon the people is the danger to the 1915 Exposition from the operation of such a measure as the Kansas Blue Sky law. If all stocks with uncertain prospects of paying profits are to be barred from the market it will be illegal to sell stock in the Exposition, or in any concession at the Exposition. The merchants are pointing out that the terms of the Kansas law would, in fact, expressly bar the whole Exposition project. Another strong argument which is being urged as important not only to the merchants directly, but to the people of the whole state, is the big leverage given by the Kansas Blue Sky law to the "money trust."

This argument has been given especial force by the testimony given to the country by the press reports of the Pujo Committee in Congress. Statistics are quoted to show that in the two years of the operation of the law in Kansas some 1800 investment companies have been driven you can have your way. When we differ I'll have mine."
